THE GREAT AND FAMOUS

RICHMOND LIBBY PRISON

HAS BEEN REMOVED FROM RICHMOND, VA., TO CHICAGO,

And erected just as it stood in that city in Dixie's Land. It has been converted into a GREAT MUSEUM, illustrating the Civil War and African Slavery in America. It is filled with thousands of genuine relics of the war, such as Scenes, Views, Portraits, Arms, Guns, Original Orders of all the Prominent Officers, both North and South, etc. No sectional animosity is intended—no North, no South—but a fair representation of the great Civil War, from both Northern and Southern standpoints.
